CLCC SUMMER CAMP

Infants, Toddlers and Twos

This summer your child will be introduced to North Carolina's finest features! Children will enjoy age-appropriate dances, games, art, story time, activities and special snacks each day. Wednesdays at CLCC will continue to be a camp favorite with WATER DAY! Children will have age-appropriate water fun which will include water tables and water toys! Sno Cones, popsicles, and goldfish or cheese puffs will be a part of our regular weekly snacks with theme-related snacks twice a week. Continue reading to learn about the individual, exciting, themed weeks as we discover our backyard of North Carolina!

We look forward to spending this summer with our special campers!

REGISTRATION BEGINS FEBRUARY 4, 2019

JUNE 17-22—OCEANOGRAPHERS

Who doesn't love the beach? We will have fun looking for sea shells and playing with beach balls while listening to "Baby Shark." Story time will include Down by the Bay and Spot Goes To the Beach. Our art project will be shark sensory bottles and kite decorating. Snacks this week will include pirate booty and watermelon.

JUNE 24-28—PROFESSIONAL ATHLETES

We all love a good game! We will dance and move to Kids Bop "Party Rock Anthem" while we try the wave! We will run some bases and shoot some hoops, too! In story time, we will listen to books like Goodnight Football. For art we will make a sports pennant and a mascot mask. Our snacks this week will be oranges and super bowl snack mix.

JULY 1-5 (CLOSED JULY 4TH) — PIONEERS

Let's explore the olden days! We will enjoy games like "London Bridge" and "Ring Around the Rosey." In story time, we will hear If You Give a Dog a Donut and Night, Night North Carolina. Our art projects will include a glass window and a pressed flower. Our snack will be apples.

JULY 8-12 — MOUNTAINEERS

We are headed for the hills! We will have so much fun singing around the camp fire and going on a bear hunt. In story time, we will enjoy books like S is for S'mores and Goodnight Mountains. Our art projects will include making a teddy bear and painting a pet rock. Our snacks this week will be rainbow trout (rainbow goldfish) and teddy grahams.

JULY 15-19—THRILL SEEKERS

All aboard! This week we will enjoy pretending to be on trains, rafts, roller coasters, and we will even get to follow the yellow brick road! Story time will include Goodnight Train and Thomas the Train. We will make lion masks and tissue paper hot air balloons. Our snacks will include applesauce and train tracks (pretzels).

JULY 22-26—FACT SEEKERS

Nature, race cars, puppet shows, and science labs will be our themes this week. We will enjoy songs like "Life is a Highway" and will do the "Molecule Freeze" dance. Story time will include books like Vroom Goes the Red Race Car and Scientist, Scientist What So You See? For art we will make a nature collage and a space rocket. Snacks will be rice krispy treats and edible slime (Jell-O).

JULY 29-AUG 2—ZOOLOGIST

We all love the zoo! We will open with the theme song from Madagascar and pretend to be wild animals. Our stories will include books like Giraffes Can't Dance and If I Ran the Zoo. We may even go lion hunting! In art we will make a hand-print giraffe and will put spots on a leopard. Our snacks will be animal crackers and tiger cubs (oranges).

AUG 5- 9 —CAROLINIANS

We will pretend to be at the State Fair and will get to enjoy a hay ride while listening to "Old MacDonald Had a Farm." Our story time will include the books T is for Tarheel and The Fabulous Fair ABC. We will try and pin the tire on the tractor. For art we will make a state flag and play with puffy paint! Snacks will be soft pretzels and cereal bars.
